

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

TRAINING DIVISION

DIRECTIVE

Subject No. 1-21.36/3

Document No. 1
No Change In Class <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> Declassified
Class. Changed To: TS S C
Auth.: HR 70-2
Date: 3 OCT 1978 By: 27

Type Lecture Hours 1 1/2 Date Issued 25 Sept. 1970
 School Assignment STB/TRD Present to Staff Orientation
SEC Continuous
 (class) (date)

Title of Subject Intelligence and Nat'l. Security: Mission of CIAPurpose: To acquaint the students with:

- a. Definitions of intelligence; national intelligence and departmental intelligence; and national security.
- b. Categories of information from which national intelligence is produced.
- c. U. S. organization for defense.
- d. U. S. Intelligence Agencies.
- e. Overall picture of mission and general functions of CIA.

Scope and General Methods of Presentation:

Intelligence and National Security are presented in their general and broad aspects. Although the entire set-up of the U. S. Intelligence is presented, details are not discussed.

No organizational break-down of the CIA is presented. The scope includes background, founding, mission, and limitations of the Agency. For security reasons, structural details are omitted.

The lecture method is used.

Subjects with Which Coordination Is Required:

Organization and Functions of CIA (Lecture - AOC)

References: James S. Lay, Jr., "The Nat'l. Security Council".
 "Statement of Lt. Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Director of Central Intelligence".

See also Vault 274
 + 216

LOW WHITE COPY FILE 274 A

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~